

AN INDIAN VICTORY.

The Pintes Secure the Right of Free Transportation.

(San Francisco Chronicle 16th)

There arrived in this city on Sunday last three Pinte Indians of prominence in their tribe, on diplomatic business with the railroad company and Wells, Fargo & Co. They are Natchez, Chief of the Pintes, his brother, Jerry Natchez, and Captain "Pinte Charley." They came here from Winnemucca, Nev., but their reservation is at Pyramid Lake. Natchez in an interview yesterday stated that for many years the railroad company and Wells, Fargo & Co., had allowed the Indians to transport free of charge the fish and ducks which they had caught and shot. The Indians used the privilege and sold their goods along the line of the road, but about two years ago the companies learned that a white man at Wadsworth had a number of Indians employed in the business, and that he was receiving the proceeds of the sales from them. The companies would not allow the matter to go on, and revoked the privilege, according to the Pintes. This action in the language of Natchez, "made the Indians heap angry," but they heroically endured the denial until recently, when Natchez and the others were appointed a committee to bring the companies to time. It was a very large and hazardous undertaking, considering the fact that the masses of this State, by their representatives, are unable to obtain their rights from the railroad company. On last Wednesday Chief Natchez and his confederates waited on Robert H. Pratt, Assistant General Superintendent of the Central Pacific Railroad Company, at his office, but he informed them that John L. Valentine, Superintendent of Wells, Fargo & Co., was the only person who had power to restore to them the desired privileges. Accordingly Mr. Valentine was visited, and the Indians made known their business with him. At first he was not inclined to grant the right of free transportation. For a moment, and but for a moment, it looked as if their mission was not to be accomplished, but Chief Natchez knows no such word as "fail." The privilege was granted, but how brought about we will give in the Indian's words: "I tell him," said Natchez, "if not give, I make war. He jump up, say, 'I want no trouble—shake hands,' and the Indians will once more enjoy the privileges of free transportation. Natchez says, 'the Indians be heap glad—jump so high,' and he held out his hand at a distance of four feet from the ground: 'I be good man,' and he laughed heartily at his victory.

During the Bannock war a large number of the Pintes were removed from Nevada to Washington Territory, but since then some 264 men, women and children have returned, leaving about 150 more behind. Natchez is desirous of obtaining a settlement for them at Fort Modem and to that end has visited General Kelton. That gentleman informed them that they must see the Indian Agent, so Natchez and his companions leave the city to-day. Natchez said, in conclusion: "Have heap good time here. Go seven theaters one night. Some places say, 'take a drink.' Indian no drink—no good. No come for drink; come for business."

NEVADA'S POPULATION.

A New York journal argues that the State of Nevada should be sold out at auction, because her "population is now down to 60,000 and decreasing at a rapid rate." It does not seem to be known to this journalist that Nevada's population was but 62,000 in 1880, when it was 20,000 more than in 1870. Since 1880 there has been a decrease of 2,000, or of a good deal more than that, in the population of Nevada, but nobody can say so officially, for there has been no census taken. However, we do not doubt the decrease in population has been several times 2,000. Last Fall's election showed a falling off in the vote of 4,000 since 1880, and it is therefore probable that if Nevada should be sold now, she could not show up 50,000 people. But be that as it may, there is no way to put Nevada out of the Union until she chooses to go.—S. F. Alta.

The San Francisco Call has a decided leaning for Thurman as the Democratic nominee. It says:

Thurman would call out every Democratic voter in Ohio and thousands whose vote is given to the best man. He would have also a Democratic majority of 12,000 to commence with. Under these circumstances there seems but little doubt of Thurman's ability to carry his own State. He would also carry California if any Democrat could. The Southern States, West Virginia, Ohio, Indiana, California and Nevada would elect him.

Thurman might carry Nevada. He is the only Democrat in the United States who has any show to do it in '84.

Nathaniel Barker, who wrote "Ben Bolt," is seriously ill. He is 70 years old, and lives in Lynn, Mass.

A prominent officer of the Treasury Department is reported as saying:

There is strong reason why, apart from other considerations, nothing will be done regarding the coinage of the silver dollar. The next Presidential contest bids fair to be very close, and the managers of the two great political parties are already discussing the doubtful electoral votes, and among the doubtful ones are those of the silver States, Nevada and Colorado. If the Republicans in Congress should, as a party, take positive action in favor of stopping silver coinage, both Nevada and Colorado would probably become Democratic next year. The fear of that result will doubtless restrain the Republicans from making silver coinage a party question. The Democrats in Congress this Winter will be influenced by similar motives. If the Republicans determine to bring the silver question before Congress, they would necessarily have to originate the measure in the Senate, of which they have political control. Of the Republican members, Jones and Allison will oppose the suspension of the silver dollar coinage. The former is a silver extremist, and Allison is the real father of the existing silver law.

Advice to Mothers.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so, send at once and get a bottle of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhoea, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle. feb. 21-wt-lyr

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral wonderfully increases the power and flexibility of the voice, enabling public speakers to speak clearly and without fatigue. If people who are troubled with colds would take Ayer's Cherry Pectoral before going to church or places of entertainment, they would avoid coughing, greatly to the comfort of both hearers and speakers.

The following letter tells its own story. The signature will be recognized as that of the Physician-in-Chief of the De Quincey Home, and author of "Drugs That Enslave," "The Hypodermic Injection of Morphine," "A Manual of Nursing," and many other popular and valuable special medical works:

MESSES. SEABURY & JOHNSON, Gentlemen—Like most of my profession, I am cautious about pinning my faith to any new medicine or curative agent. But your BENSON'S CAPSINE POROUS PLASTER has broken through the barriers and won its way to my good opinion. My attention was first called to it some eight months ago by a patient of mine. Although I was well acquainted with the superior excellence of your other plaster and antiseptic dressing, made especially for the profession, the Benson's was comparatively new to me. I had heard, however, of its merits as a remedy, in cases of Lamé Back, Local Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Congestion of the Bronchial Tubes and Lungs, Dyspepsia, Torpid Liver and the like affections, and have since begun to experiment with it personally. And BENSON'S CAPSINE PLASTER an exceptionally cleanly plaster to use, and rapid in its action.

Many tests of its qualities, made in my own family and among my patients, have convinced me that there is no other single article so valuable for popular use, nor so helpful in the diseases I have named.

Should you desire to do so, you may use my name to that effect.

Very truly yours, H. H. KANE, A. M., M. D.

THE MESSAGE.

President Arthur hasn't commenced his annual message yet. He is waiting to hear from General Fowning. [Tuscarora Times-Review.]

Pleasant badinage of the above character is not at all unpleasant, and coming from the Democratic Senator from Elko shall not be treated lightly. Therefore, that he may have some pleasant Sunday reading, we shall undertake the difficult task of indicating the various subjects entitled to recognition in such an important State paper as will be presented to Congress in a few days, desiring it to be understood that the thoughts and ideas are intended exclusively for the edification and enjoyment of the facetious Senator from Elko.

The introductory should principally be devoted to the pleasing reminder that the country had been blessed with a season of unexampled prosperity, was continually growing in greatness, and its future full of hope and promise. Our foreign relations should be gravely considered, and while it would be shown that we were at peace with all the world, and that the stars and stripes were duly respected in every quarter of the globe, yet there should be a desire expressed for a more vigorous policy abroad, and a demand that American products shall not be unjustly discriminated against by Germany, neither should there be any infringement of the Monroe doctrine, nor should China or the Chinese continue to violate the spirit of the new treaty. * * * Insist upon supplemental regulations with China so as to effectually prohibit the immigration of Chinese.

Following this should be shown the enormous reduction of the National debt during the fiscal year, and the total amount of the reduction since the ending of the civil war. Inseparable from this would be a table showing the steady reduction of the annual interest charge, and the grand shrinkage for the year, with the prospect for still further reductions in the future, pointing out that the time was near at hand for funding the debt at a rate of interest less than 3 per cent, and for its total extinguishment by the year 1890, after which time the Government would do its own banking business, and the National Banks retire, and there should be a dollar of gold, another of silver, and a third of paper, each equal to the other in the payment of taxes and for revenue purposes. The people should then be made acquainted with the immense sums of money collected and disbursed for the various departments for the year and the exhibit made of the honest and economical manner in which the public officers of the country had performed their labors. Here could be interpolated the showing that the Postoffice Department had been more than self-sustaining, and that letter postage had been out down one-third. Public attention should be further directed to the fact that the growing needs of the country demand a postal telegraph, and that steps should be immediately taken to provide such a system, and in this connection should also strongly be recommended the establishment of Postal Saving Banks.

It would be very proper then to show that the tax on matches had been entirely stricken off, that other taxes had been materially reduced, so that in all $80,000,000 annually was saved to the people; that useless offices had been dispensed with, and that consolidations had been effected wherever possible without injury to the public service. This particular branch of the message should receive more than ordinary attention, for it would be interesting as showing some of the good accomplished by the Republican party. The attention of Congress should then be called to the fact that the Edmunds bill had failed to accomplish the object intended, and that a more stringent measure was necessary, and should be passed, to wipe out polygamy in Utah, as well as every other Territory in the Union. There ought also to be a recommendation for such legislation as would insure to every voter the right to cast his ballot as he saw fit, and to have it properly counted after it had been so cast. It should also be stated that the experiment of Civil Service Reform was being tested, and that the Commissioners were well pleased with the results already attained. The admission of Dakota, Washington Territory and New Mexico, as States, should be urged, and, in conclusion, somewhat of a general recommendation, with the hope that the House of Representatives might profit thereby, that Congress should do those things it ought to do this Winter, and leave undone those things it is almost certain to inflict upon a peaceable and prosperous country.

Financial Condition.

The late call of $15,000,000 three per cent. bonds by the Secretary of the Treasury may not be pleasant to the National Banks but it is another illustration of the powerful success which has accompanied and crowned Republican management of the finances. Secretary Folger has called in since July $72,000,000 of outstanding bonds, and should be continued at the present rate, he will have cancelled $144,000,000 by the end of the present fiscal year. The total receipts from customs, internal revenue and miscellaneous sources last year were $398,338,520 and the total expenditures of the Government, $265,568,037, leaving a surplus of $132,770,483. The present fiscal year the surplus is $143,543,810. The total debt reduced last year was $138,823,253, leaving in the Treasury at the beginning of the year a cash balance of $151,118,346. The receipts thus far this year, owing to changes in the revenue and tariff laws, have been smaller than last year, and the estimated total falling off is $79,000,000. But there has also been a decrease in expenditure, and from present appearances it is believed the surplus will be at least $100,000,000, and probably considerably more. The Republican party took possession of the Government when it was without credit, carried it successfully through the greatest war of modern history, inaugurated a financial policy that has been the marvel of the world, and brought the country into its present ease, happiness and unbounded prosperity.

The September statement of the Union Pacific Railroad Company shows the gross earnings for the month of $2,994,072, a decrease from the corresponding month last year of $176,239; expenses, $1,535,183, an increase of $274,596; surplus earnings, $1,458,888, a decrease of $45,835. The decrease on earnings is due primarily to the extension of the Chicago Burlington and Quincy Railroad to Denver, and also to the decrease in the Colorado business. The gross earnings for October show a decrease of $50,000. According to approximate figuring of the earnings the first week in November will show an increase of more than $70,000 over the same week last year.

The United States Supreme Court is engaged in hearing the case of Stephen Percy Ellis et al. appellants, vs. Jefferson Davis, argument commenced. This is a suit brought by the next of kin and collateral heirs of the late Sarah Ann Dorsey, of Louisiana, for the purpose of setting aside the will by which the said Mrs. Dorsey left all her real estate and personal property to Jefferson Davis. It is maintained by the heirs that the testatrix, at the time when she made this will, was not of sound mind, and she was subject to undue influence.

The New York Tribune advocates a law for the collection of statistics of the wealth brought to America by immigrants from the old world, and thinks we may be getting more gold into the country from the pockets of immigrants than is produced by our mines. In four years 2,500,000 immigrants have come to our shores. If they average $20 in gold for each person there is an addition of $50,000,000 to the stock in the country.

The New York Sun having stated that General Arthur had apparently made a serious effort to become the Republican candidate for the Presidency in 1894, Truth states, with the most positive assurance of reliability, its declaration that the President has not only not determined to make a serious effort to become a candidate for the Presidency, but that he has not made and will not make any effort in that direction whatever.

The candidacy of Mr. Henry B. Payne, of Ohio, for the United States Senate is the biggest bonanza the Democrats have struck for many a day. He is worth nearly $10,000,000. Mr. Payne will undoubtedly be worked for all he will produce. The Democrats have a weakness for candidates with a big bar!

Brooklyn, with a Republican Mayor, has decreased its debt $1,000,000 in two years, just as the United States, with a Republican administration, is reducing the national debt.

There is a good prospect of a lively railroad war between Omaha and Chicago. Go it.

Carlisle is said to be ahead in the Speakership contest.

The New York Sun now favors Holman and Hewitt.

A Talk with Butler.

Governor Butler is at the Fifth-avenue Hotel and was interviewed by a reporter from the New York Graphic Wednesday, which paper recently espoused his interests. He said of his defeat: "The wholesale purchase and colonization of voters and repeaters—that's what did it. Boston and all the large towns were flooded with repeaters, and unlimited money was used by a combination made up of old blue-blooded Democrats and Republicans. They thought more of money than of principles. I can't retire to private life now with the labor question in its present state and the monopolies grasping at the throat of the people. I can't be still. No, sir. I'm in favor of making the issue on labor and anti-monopoly, which are really the live issues. I shall continue the contest. I think I represent the same principles that must be recognized in the coming Presidential struggle. If they be not included in the Democratic platform and a man nominated who is a known advocate of them, then one will be found who will wage the contest on these issues. Cleveland is not a representative Democrat. He is merely the attorney for certain corporations. That's the way they have of controlling the people. I am not over-much pleased with Abbott's success in New Jersey and don't look upon it so much as a Democratic victory as one of the Pennsylvania Railroad, of which Abbott is the attorney. If this condition of things is not stopped the people will rebel against such abuses and we may drift into anarchy and revolt."

Crazed by Riding.

A man who gave the name of John Barrett, and who had an emigrant ticket to New York, stopped over at Winnemucca Thursday and sought protection from the Sheriff. He fancied that there were highwaymen on the train, who were robbing the passengers of everything valuable that they could get away with, and as he had a fine gold watch, he thought they would take it from him. A night's sleep restored his senses, and he left for the East. The Silver State adds this is only one of several instances known there where men have been made temporarily insane by riding on emigrant cars.

An Attack on Nevada.

The New York Truth says: It would seem, according to all reports, that the time has arrived for Nevada to plant the red flag on one of her lofty peaks, and ring the bell for an auction. Her population is now down to 60,000, and decreasing at a rapid rate. Her citizens are beginning to make firewood of the large and costly buildings erected at Gold Hill and Virginia City. We move an amendment to the Constitution that will enable Hon. James G. Fair to possess himself at cost price of so much of the State as is not already under his control.

Should be Admitted.

The telegraph announces some important legislation in Washington Territory. The bill to strike out the word male from all election laws passed the Council by a vote of 7 to 5. It passed the Lower House several weeks ago by a large majority. No doubt Governor Newell will sign it, as he is an ardent advocate of woman suffrage. The House passed a bill for the relief of Miss Fannie Verona Baldwin, who attempted the life of E. J. Baldwin, of San Francisco, some months ago, and is now confined in the asylum at Steilacoom. It provides that she be examined by a jury as to her sanity.

Eureka's Yield.

C. C. Wallace, Assessor of Eureka county, publishes an abstract statement of the proceeds of the mines in that county in the Leader, for the quarter ending September 30. Sixty-one mines in the district are producing ore. The tax on the bullion foots up $826 49.

The United States Geological Survey has made a through survey of Mount Shasta, and find that a horse trail of easy grade is practicable to the summit. The party ascended to the highest peak just after the first storm on the 12th of October their camp outfit and firewood being taken to an altitude of at least 12,000 feet by pack train.

S. S. Cox opened his headquarters in Willard's Hotel Thursday and went about working up his boom for the Speakership. General Rosecrans has come out squarely for him. Cox will keep no sideboard. Randall and Carlisle, it is thought, will follow Cox's example.

It is intimated that Riddleberger, Mahone's colleague in the Senate, will desert Mahonism, and hereafter act with the Democrats.

The Bullion Mining Company has levied an assessment of 20c per share, delinquent December 18th.

THE STATE UNIVERSITY.

[Elko Independent.] An intelligent gentleman of Elko, speaking of the State University at that place, assures us that it is fast assuming the State character it is intended to have, and that the new principal, Professor Farrington, is proving himself a thoroughly efficient teacher. The school is now calculated to turn out finished scholars. We are glad to hear it. Nevada has not had much success with her University since it was founded, except to secure the school lands given by the General Government upon the condition that she had a University, but if the institution is now doing so well, we may yet have a place equal to Berkeley or any other California advanced school. Nothing short of this will satisfy Nevada. The Regents are doing their utmost to make it an honor to the State. My abundant success attend their efforts.

Kelly on New York Politics.

At the request of Melville E. Stone, editor of the Chicago Daily News, John Kelly has sent him the following letter: New York, November 14th. The late election in the State of New York is no indication of what may be the result of the Presidential election of 1894. Maynard, the candidate for Secretary of State, was defeated by the brewers and persons engaged in the distilling and sale of spirituous liquors. The majority of the candidates on the ticket with him will average 13,000. The registry of New York City was 182,000. The vote polled was 152,000, 23,000 Democrats and 9,000 Republicans not voting. Kings county usually giving Democratic majorities in Presidential years of from 3,000 to 18,000, gave a majority of 600 to Carr, the Republican nominee for Secretary of State. New York City usually gives majorities of from 45,000 to 50,000 in the same years. Chapin, the candidate for Controller, has 30,000. New York State can be carried for the Democratic nominees of the National Convention, providing they are loyal and reliable men to the party, and that their reputations in official and private life are beyond question. JOHN KELLY.

1894—REPUBLICAN TICKET.

[New York Sun.] For President — James Gillespie Blaine, of Augusta. For Vice-President — John Alexander Logan, of Chicago. Platform — Let the Eagle Scream!

The Cincinnati Commercial Gazette says: On the streets yesterday, one might have seen an aged gentleman whose hair flowed in white waves over his shoulders, while his beard was bushy and long, and his wide-brimmed soft felt hat and strange garb told that he was a stranger. He was Judge N. Banning Norton, from Dallas, Texas, and years ago he was a violent Whig. When Henry Clay made his first great race for the Presidency, Judge Norton solemnly vowed that he would never out his hair until he saw his leader in the White House. But Henry Clay never reached the White House, and consequently for all those years since 1842, the Judge's hair has been growing and growing, and will still continue to grow until the hand of Death cuts it short.

Mr. Blaine says he never was in better health than now; he is seldom out of bed at 10:30 p. m., or in bed at 8 a. m., and he has grown many years younger in appearance since he laid aside the cares and anxieties of public life.—Ex. How are you, Mr. Tilden?

According to ex-Secretary Everts the era of railway development has only just begun. In a letter to Hilton B. Helpor, the projector of a road connecting the three Americas, Mr. Everts says he considers the measure essential to the complete commercial development and general welfare of all the nations of our Western Hemisphere.

How many are coming West? may be a question which the sales of the Union Pacific lands in Nebraska for the first ten months in 1893 may answer for the central belt, the amount being over $3,000,000, and still the crowd of land seekers continue to move westward.

A HOME DRUGGIST TESTIFIES.

Popularity at home is not always the best test of merit, but we point proudly to the fact that no other medicine has won for itself such universal approbation in its own city, state, and country, and among all people, as

Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

The following letter from one of our best known Massachusetts Druggists should be of interest to every sufferer:

"Eight years ago I had an attack of Rheumatism, so severe that I could not move from the bed, or dress, without help. I tried several remedies without much if any relief, until I took AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, by the use of two bottles of which I was completely cured. Have sold large quantities of your SARSAPARILLA, and it still retains its wonderful popularity. The many notable cures it has effected in this vicinity convince me that it is the best blood medicine ever offered to the public. E. F. HAMIS." River St., Buckland, Mass., May 13, 1892.

RHEUMATISM.

GEORGE ANDREWS, overseer in the Lowell Carpet Corporation, was for over twenty years before his removal to Lowell afflicted with Salt Rheum in its worst form. Its ulcerations actually covered more than half the surface of his body limbs. He was entirely cured by AYER'S SARSAPARILLA. See certificate in Ayer's Almanac for 1893.

PREPARED BY Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Sold by all Druggists; $1, six bottles for $5.

IN AND OUT OF TOWN

What is Being Said and Done in a Small Way.

Twelve prisoners in the county jail.

Ayres & Poor have sold their band of cattle to C. Derby.

The delinquent list will not be near so large as that of last year.

It is reported that the sale of the N. & O. will again be postponed.

Sierra Valley wants a daily mail from Truckee. The service now is only three times a week.

Weather prophets predict a big snow storm before the close of the coming week.

The number of country people in town yesterday gave the streets an unusually lively appearance.

The Central Pacific Railroad has paid its taxes in Elko county amounting to the snug little sum of $50,000.

The Gazette has forgotten to refer to Mr. Dickens. Is not the Public Administrator a county officer?

The case of Whitehead against Evans was decided in the Justice's Court yesterday. Judgment for the defendant.

People residing on North Sierra street are complaining of a powder-house, which is located in close proximity to their dwellings.

The San Francisco Post believes Sharon did sign that marriage contract, but previous to the writing of the body of it.

Senator Marker says that if the low rate on wheat to tide-water is maintained he will seed a thousand acres next year.

Surveyor General Preble says the sales of State lands for this month will amount to 15,000 acres, about 12,000 of which are in Elko county.

Parties who own some mining claims in Cedar district, between here and Pyramid, are going out next week to do their annual assessment work.

An effort will be made to obtain reduced rates on the C. P. for teachers who wish to attend the State Institute at Reno in December.

F. E. Sickles has made a "Centennial Lemonade" sign for Morris A. H., which is one of the most beautiful specimens of chirography ever seen in this section. Fred is a very handy man with the pen.

Henry Hayden for endeavoring to navigate under too heavy a load of benzine and for disturbing the peace was lodged in the cooler yesterday by officer Nash.

Yesterday was a busy day with the Auditor and Treasurer, it being next to the last day of grace with taxpayers; a great many of them came in to square their accounts.

Miss Hattie Lewis lost a plain, ladies gold watch on the street, yesterday. In the case is a photograph, and in the back the date, July 25, 1881.

Fredrick & Hastings' Orchestra Band, on next Wednesday evening, at the Theater, will commence a series of weekly soirees which will be kept up all winter.

All the railroad companies in Washoe county have paid their taxes to the Treasurer, and he is said to the credit of the little N. & O., it was the first on the list to come to the center.

The cattle yards of L. W. Lee, north of the railroad track, near the foundry, are said to be the largest, most convenient and substantial of any on the line of the road between Ogden and Sacramento.

The case of the State of Nevada vs. Simon Rosenthal, the merchant who is charged with arson, in burning his store at Grantville about two months ago, is set for trial at Belmont on the 26th of the present month.

PERSONALS.

Jake Lewis was in town yesterday.

Senator Marker was in town yesterday.

W. F. Berry, of the N. & O., is still quite sick.

Frank Bell and family were in town yesterday.

Capt. J. R. Overton went to Boca yesterday.

Bennie Barnett is back from the northern country.

Gordon Rice returned from Honolulu yesterday morning.

Walter M. Thomas came in from Long Valley last evening.

Chauncey Haskell and A. E. Hen came down from Washoe yesterday.

Gov. Adams is expected to return to Carson next Wednesday.

Tom Hymers came home from Carson last night to spend the Sabbath in the bosom of his family.

Tom Kelly, sent from Washoe county, talks of making an application for pardon at the next meeting of the Board of Pardons.

J. Sloat Russell, a nephew of Chas. Crocker, was elected State Senator from the Elmira District of New York, at the election held last week.

Went Home to Die.

JOURNAL readers will remember A. L. Hurd, who lived in Reno some three years ago, with his family, and was employed as section foreman on the O. P. Railroad between Reno and Clark's station. After leaving here he accepted a similar position with the company near Corinne, Utah, where he has been stationed ever since. A week ago last Sunday he started for his old home in Iowa, quite ill with pneumonia, which was thought to have been aggravated by trouble originating in a knife wound he received in Reno. The day after his arrival home he died. It was thought to be quite probable that the knife wound may have been the direct cause of his death, as he had recovered partially from pneumonia, but as more than a year and a day have elapsed since the wound was inflicted, the man who stabbed him is under no ban.

To Applicants For Carp.

"All applicants for carp heretofore made to H. G. Parker, Fish Commissioner, will be supplied from Nevada's quota, to arrive in Carson about the 20th instant" (so long as the supply lasts), on each applicant paying, or guaranteeing the payment of the express charges from Carson and the pro rata expended by the State in shipping the carp from Ogden to Carson. If more than enough to fill present orders, then subsequent applications will be attended to in regular order."

Of Interest to Hay Shippers.

A notice from the General Freight Agent of the Central Pacific Railroad Company, posted at the Freight Office here, cautions persons shipping hay against the practice of leaving the car doors open, and informs them if they continue to do so, the expense of unloading the hay, so that the doors can be closed, will be charged to the shippers. Railroad men say that there is danger of cars loaded with hay getting on fire by sparks from the locomotive if the door is left open, hence the order to close them.

Held to Answer.

William Hill and John Ferry, the two young men who were arrested at Austin a few days ago on a charge of being the parties who stole two horses from a farmer near Camp Halleck, had a hearing at Elko last Wednesday and were bound over to appear before the next Grand Jury in the sum of $3,000 each. Ferry claims that his only offense is that of being caught in the company of Hill.

Arm Broken.

Mrs. M. D. Bowen stepped on the ice at her residence a few days ago, and fell, bruising her arm badly. As the injured limb seemed to get worse instead of better, a physician was called yesterday, and upon examination, found that both bones of the arm were broken. The bones were put in place, but it will probably be some time before the old lady fully recovers.

H. H. Beck has instituted two suits in the District Court at Winnemucca, against E. C. Asher, of Lovelocks.

The Very Latest.

The very latest way of "raising the wind" at church socials is a "Weight Party." For the benefit of those interested in such amusements we give the following description of the thing, assuring them that "it pays." A fine supper is prepared by the ladies and the names of all the females are put into a box, from which each gentleman present draws a name. The lady is then weighed, and the gentleman who has drawn her name is expected to pay for his and her supper one cent for each pound of her weight. For instance, if the weight of the lady whose name he has drawn is 125 pounds, he must pay $1.25 for supper. The young man who succeeds in drawing the name of a thin, bony creature, who only weighs 90 lbs. will consider himself more fortunate than the fellow who draws from the box the name of some large and brawny lass who tips the beam at 250.

The Right Spirit.

Renewed zeal is being manifested by the members of the Reno Guard, as was plainly manifested by the increased attendance at the drill last evening, and after it was over the members expressed themselves delighted with the manner in which it was conducted by Captain Alexander. The boys are very jubilant over the future prospects of the Company.

Captured.

Charles Brown, who got away with a horse from Hymers' stable, and who tried to collect a band as he journeyed northward, was captured at Fish Springs night before last by Adams, the keeper of the station, and brought to Reno last evening and lodged in jail.

To the Reno Guard.

All members of Reno Guard are particularly requested to be present at a meeting to-morrow evening at 7:30, at the Armory, as business of the utmost importance must be attended to. By order of the Captain.

Church Notice.

There will be no preaching in the Methodist Church to-day. Class meeting and Sunday-school as usual.

The delinquent list of the Pyramid M. Co. will be found in our advertising columns. The stockholders find it cheaper to pay the advertising charges and have the use of their money for a month than to pay the assessment at the time it becomes delinquent. Tricks in all trades, but the printing business.

A newspaper reporter rushed wildly into the Sheriff's office yesterday in search of an item, and before he had time to explain his errand was collared by a deputy and socked in a cell, and only released after making a solemn promise never to disturb the proverbial tranquillity of the office again.

Lawyer Cain, assignee of the Hagerman estate, went to Carson yesterday to sell at public auction the block of property in that city, once known as the Schooling property. It joins the residence of Governor Adams and is located in one of the most desirable parts of the city.

The Board of Supervisors of Lassen county will pay $500, and the State of California will pay $300 for the arrest and conviction of the person or persons who murdered Samuel B. Shaw, on Madeline Plains, Lassen county, Cal., on or about September 23th, 1883.

The record shows that people have paid their taxes more promptly this year than last, which would seem to indicate that money is more easy and business becoming more prosperous.

Accident at Osburn & Shoemaker's.

As our reporter passed Osburn & Shoemaker's he saw a crowd of ladies gathered there and found that the trouble was a fall in the price of artists' materials. They are selling all kinds at actual cost—plaques, brushes, paints, and everything in that line.

Several Reno parties, who take a good deal of stock in mining matters, are talking of clubbing together and sending a representative to the new gold fields in Northern Idaho.

All of Dakota, as seen from the railroad, is prairie; all of Montana is mountain, valley and canyon. The landscape in each Territory is alike destitute of green. The eye becomes accustomed to the prevailing russet, but it does not cease to long for the living hue.

A Card.

William Pinniger tenders his best thanks to his numerous friends, and the public generally, for the very liberal support accorded him in the past, and he begs to inform them that he has again effected a co-partnership with R. E. Queen, at the old stand, and respectfully invites a continuance of their patronage. The new firm have added largely to their stock of drugs, chemicals, patent medicines, wines and liquors for medicinal purposes; toilet and fancy articles, etc. In the dispensing departments they make a specialty of physicians' prescriptions and family receipts, bringing to their already large experience the latest achievements in scientific pharmacy, and are prompt in filling all orders intrusted to them.
